Tanner chosen new Belle Glade Chamber Executive Director

By Brenda Bunting

A South Bay commissioner and part-time bookkeeper has been chosen as the new Executive Director for the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber Board of Directors chose Iris M. Tanner, age 52, of 340 S.E. 2nd Ave., South Bay, to take over the duties beginning August 17.

"I'm excited," said Mrs. Tanner. "It will be a challenge. Sue has just left some big shoes to slip into."

Former Executive Director Sue Teets resigned from the position after serving five years in the job. She left to take a job as the Assistant to the City Manager/Community Relations Specialist for the City of Belle Glade.

The Chamber Board met Monday night to make a decision on a new Executive Director.

"The Chamber board welcomes Mrs. Tanner as our new Executive Director," said Mary Orsenigo, Chamber

"We have the Chamber Board coming up in the fall as well as the political forum," she said. "We need to give our new Executive Director time to learn the ropes before we get into the busy season."

Mrs. Tanner told the Board she has a deep interest and Board for the Health love for the Glades and the skills she has developed in both (PATCH), and was appointed professional and personal areas by the Governor's office in 1991 would be assets in completing a to four year term on the Board of Trustees for the

Businesses being asked to do survey

Results will tell how SWIM may impact area

By Brenda Bunting

Businesses in the Glades are being asked this week to complete a survey on the economic impact of the SWIM (Surface Water Improvement and Management) plan.

The South Florida Water Management District is sponsoring the survey, which is being handled by Hazen and Sawyer, environmental engineers and scientists in Hollywood, Florida.

According to Grace Johns, a spokesperson for the company, approximately 350 to 400 surveys have been sent to residents in Belle Glade, Pahokee, South Bay, Clewiston, and Lake Harbor.

The study will attempt to gauge the job losses if 35,000 acres of productive farmland are taken out of production to create a filter system for nutrients said to be damaging the EEA.

"We're trying to target as many businesses as possible," said Ms. Johns, who added that the list was compiled from the telephone book and from a mailing list used by Royals in Belle Glade.

"We excluded one person businesses," she said, "and were hoping to get a good response from the survey."

The deadline to complete the survey and send it back to Hazen and Sawyer is May 29.

The final draft report will be presented to the South Florida Water Management District in July.

Ms. Johns said businesses who do not receive the survey and have more than one person in their business, should call her at 305-987-0066.

She discourages business owners from making companies of the survey for other business owners to use.

"This could throw the survey off," she said. "They should call us if they want to be included."

The Glades Central Community High School boys and girls track teams did their school and city proud this past weekend bringing home the heptathlon and decathlon titles to the Glades.

The Lady Raiders placed three athletes in the top seven point scorers in the heptathlon competition. Leading the way for Glades Central were Shundra Smith (4,501 points), Phyllis Brooks (4,499 points), and Anjeanette Gilbert (4,093 points), giving them a total of 13, 093 to second place Palm Beach Lakes with 11,757, and third place Lakeland Christian with 11,458 points.

The Lady Raiders and the Raiders have been busy for the past three weeks, first taking the district competition, the state competition and now the heptathlon and decathlon titles.

The Glades Central Community High School men's

Raiders won the decathlon title with 17,279 points. Brandon was second with 17,074 points and Palm Beach Lakes placed 3rd with 16,806 points.

Leading the way for the Raiders were Wayne Messam with 6,427 points, and Gilbert Grantlin with 5,806 points.

"All the boys had an exceptional day on Saturday, Texan Moulton, Gilbert Grantlin, Wayne Messam and Keith Roland," said Coach McDonald.

Coach Jay Seider for the Lady Raiders team said, "These girls always come through and it is a pleasure to work with them. They have delivered all year long and I'm proud of all of them. It is rough on them too, because someone is always coming after them."

Coach Willie McDonald said, "It's a real good feeling to see these kids do so good. This meet was something else! This is our first win of the decathlon title."

45 students honored at Christian Day

By Brenda Bunting

"To be good is not enough, when you dream of being great," was the message speaker and teacher Joyce Chamblee gave to 45 honor students at Christian Day School's Academic Banquet Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Chamblee urged the students to set their goals high and try to go on to college. "If I can do it, believe me, you can too," she said. She said the 45 students represented 29 percent of the student body, grades 10 through 12, a high percentage of excellence.

Parents snapped pictures and applauded as the students received awards for excellence in math, Bible, social studies, science, language arts and physical education.

Four students won awards for perfect attendance, laughed Mrs. Chamblee, "but they're not here tonight."

In the senior high awards, Saneca Hart took top honors in math. Keith Hilyer took first place in Social Studies and Sharon Wetherington and Keith Hilyer tied for first place in Bible.

Meira Marin and Lisa Glass tied for the award in science and Meira Marin won the English award.

Lisa Glass took top honors in foreign language. Michael Shiver was the winner in the boy's physical education and Ginger Wade in the girl's P.E.

The highest awards in Junior High went to Amber Fulenwider in math and her sister Teresa Fulenwider tied with her for the Social Studies

New Hope Child Development Center opens in Pahokee—A group of preschoolers under the care of the New Hope Child Development Center in Pahokee participated in the Center's dedication earlier this week. The facility was renovated from abandoned farmworker housing with support from the New Hope Foundation and funds donated by Flo-Sun Inc. The Redlands Christian Migrant Association operates the center with HRS subsidies to provide child care and development services to families of migrant and seasonal farmworkers who live in the area. Above (Right to left), Bishop J. Keith Symons of the Diocese of Palm Beach cuts the dedication ribbon with the help of Lillian Fanjul-Asqueta, a director of the New Hope Foundation; Mrs. Erma Harrison, a pre-school teacher at the Center; and several of the children enrolled at the center.

WHIPLASH

Whiplash injuries can result from a sudden backward and forward whipping movement of the neck, caused by an auto collision, a fall, a powerful slap on the back, or even a violent sneeze. The ligaments and muscles controlling the spinal segments are stretched or sprained, allowing the vertebrae to slip into abnormal positions. Nerves are then "pinched" or irritated, giving rise to headaches, nausea, dizziness and other pain.

NAACP annual banquet draws good crowd

"In the time of trouble after World War II, we were singing 'God Bless America.' But when America was doing all right, it took prayer out of schools. Now we wonder what's wrong with kids," said T.H. Poole, State President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at the annual membership

Banquet sponsored by the Glades Area Branch NAACP. The banquet, which drew over 150 participants, was Saturday, May 16 in the lake Shore Civic Center, Belle Glade.

Mr. Poole said politicians are a big part of the problem in America. "Because they are the ones who change the rules. There are five institutions that run America," he continued, "home, education, religion, economics and politics. But all of them are regulated by the last one, politics."

He challenged NAACP members to hold their elected officials accountable for their interests. "We know how to get them elected. We need to learn how to collect," Mr. Poole said. "Everything worthwhile in the world costs somebody, something," he added.

Mr. Poole also spoke about the founding of the NAACP in 1909 by a bi-racial coalition of national leaders. "We've always worked well with leadership from different races," he said. "It was 40 years before the NAACP had a black president. And most of the achievements we've had, we needed to depend on others to help us with."

He gave an example of the passage of the Civil Rights Bill in 1968, when there were only five black Congressmen.

"Five people can't get anything passed by themselves," he said. "We needed to work with people who were on the side of right." That's how we've been successful in our initiatives over the past 83 years. And, we're still building bridges today."

The NAACP has been in the forefront of the struggle for Affirmative Action, nationwide,

Mr. Poole reminded the audience. "It's absurd that (President) Bush would say he doesn't like quotas. We do everything in the country by quotas," he recounted several instances where quotas are part of normalcy, including the allocations of school population and instructional personnel. "We're (African Americans) are 14 percent of the nation, but we were 33 percent in the Persian Gulf," he said.

Several elected officials from throughout the Glades were in attendance at the banquet. Palm Beach County Commissioner Ken Foster, Belle Glade Commissioners Bill Bailey and Dan Bythwood, Pahokee Mayor Ramon Horta, and Pahokee Commissioners Keith Babb and Roy Singletary. Also attending were Belle Glade City manager Lomax Harrelle, Belle Glade Police Chief Michael Miller and Pahokee City Manager Ken Schenck.

Candidates for public office who attended were Jolinda Herring, Candidate for the Florida House of Representatives, District 84 and two candidates for Palm Beach County Sheriff, Angelo Farinato and Michael Musto.

Organizers say State Senator Robert Wexler sent a letter expressing his regret that he could not attend due to an out-of-state commitment.

The evening's program featured Albert Moore as Master of Ceremonies, music and entertainment, and a meal, catered by Pat's Restaurant in The Meeting Place, which was served by volunteer School of Choice students, assisted by the officers of the Glades Area Branch.

Girl Scout Council establishes summer program for disadvantaged areas

Palm Glades Girl Scout Council has developed a special summer program called "School's Out '92" designed for girls ages 5-15 who reside in economically disadvantaged areas. This free program will be implemented in seven locations within the council's 6 1/2 county jurisdiction June 26-August 14, with a one-week session of "School's Out '92" held at each location.

The purpose of the program is to allow these girls to experience Girl Scouting firsthand, while enhancing their appreciation of community involvement, teamwork, and self-esteem.

All sessions will conclude with each participant creating and sharing a scrapbook depicting what she has learned from the program.

"School's Out '92" will be held at Noah Development in Belle Glade on June 26, 29, 30 and July 1 and 2.

For more information call the Palm Glades Girl Scout Council, Inc. at 407-582-5362.

Caller didn't like guest editorial

I'm calling in reference to the Guest Editorial in the May 7 issue of The Sun about Mr. Edwards, the President of the Glades Branch of the NAACP.

I thought the NAACP was suppose to be trying to promote racial justice and harmony. What I'd like to know is how can an organization like this have a president who obviously has some racism himself.

The comment he made in the fourth paragraph about "this cry was manifested itself in the burning of millions of dollars of property" and "the beatings of somewhat innocent non-African Americans who happened to be in the wrong place at the wrong time," "death and destruction". That in itself is a racial statement.

Editor's note: I asked Mr. Edwards to respond to this Speak Out. He says this caller has misquoted what he wrote and needs to understand that he WANTS racial harmony and peace between the races. He invites this caller and all others who wish to discuss the subject to call him at 996-3500.

Here is the paragraph in its entirety: "It is regrettable that once again America is thrown into turmoil because of a senseless racist act to deny justice to an anonymous African-American man. All over this country on yesterday a violent cry was being heard. This cry manifested itself in the burning of millions of dollars in property, beatings of somewhat innocent non-African-Americans, who happened to be in the wrong place at the wrong time, death and destruction. Statistics as of today indicate that more than 50 individuals are dead, more than 2,000 are injured and the arrest tally hit more than 9,000. We all agree that this is senseless "reaction". But let us not lose sight of the "action" that precipitated the senseless "reaction".

Handicapped spot not clearly marked

This is a concerned citizen in Pahokee. I just observed the Fire Department writing an elderly gentleman a ticket for parking in a handicapped spot which is only marked by faded out paint.

There's no sign on the store anywhere stating that it is strictly a handicapped parking spot. Where does the city, the sheriff's department or even better, the fire department have a right to write a ticket to someone who does not have the knowledge that that is a handicapped zone, especially when it's not marked with a sign stating so? And shouldn't the owner of the premises be liable for any tickets given when the store parking spot is not readily marked with a handicapped sign?

Editor's note: I spoke with Pahokee Fire Chief Gary Burroughs who said the fire department does not write tickets and therefore did not do so in this case. I will be unable to contact Pahokee Chief of Police Carmen "Skeets" Salvatore as of press time.

Dear Editor:

The primary goal of the Home Habitat Society is to encourage better use of the space surrounding our homes, for the good of the environment as well as for our own well being and enjoyment.

Many of our members participate in the "Annual Bird List", which is a yearly survey of bird species in their yards. We learned during the 1991 survey, that participating in this program inspired a great deal of habitat improvement.

This year, to increase the number of participants in the Annual Bird List, we are recruiting the general public, in addition to our membership. This will provide a larger database of information on how various backyard habitats are utilized by different species of birds.

To enhance our geographic distribution of Annual Bird List data, we are especially seeking participants in Palm Beach and surrounding counties.

Our participants greatly enjoy taking part in this survey, and I'm sure the birding enthusiasts in your community will do the same.

Should any of your readers choose to participate, we will send your paper a summary of the 1992 ABL survey at its conclusion and any particulars of local interest.

Sincerely,
Richard Van Vleck
Director

Editor's note: Did you know that Belle Glade is a designated Bird Sanctuary? You can participate in this survey if you wish.

All that is required is access to a field guide to bird identification, which can be found at the library, and an interest in birds. The number of different species of birds using your yard is a useful indicator of the quality of habitat you are providing, according to Mr. Van Vleck.

Mr. Van Vleck said keeping a record of the birds visiting your yard over several years may offer evidence of the value of improvements to the habitat that you have made, such as planting for wildlife or providing a source of water or erecting nest boxes.

In contrast, a shrinking bird list may demonstrate the effect of extensive development or changing agricultural practices around your property.

Participants will be sent the 1992 forms to be returned at the end of the year. They will then receive 1993 forms and a summary of the 1992 survey.

Mr. Van Vleck said recognition of those who have the greatest number of species for various size yards in each state will be included in the summary. The survey results will also be included in the Society's quarterly journal, Home Ground.

To take part in the Annual Bird List, send a $3 registration fee to the Home Habitat Society, P.O. Box 412, Taneytown, MD 21187.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor:

I am seeking the whereabouts of a family who lived in Canal Point around 1978-79. I have found some valuable family items which I'd like to get to the rightful owners.

They were from Puerto Rico and their names were: Epifanio Rodriguez who was a student and would have been about 16 yrs of age; Sandra Rodriguez (also an excellent student); Lynn David, and an 1979. She was treated by Dr. Mario Ramos at Glades General Hospital, Belle Glade. Her burial was by the Wetherington Funeral Home, in Pahokee.

Other members were Ernest Rodriguez, Luva Raymond, David Raymond (an excellent student and would have been about 16 yrs of age); Sandra Rodriguez (also an excellent student); Lynn David, and an E.W. Franklin. They apparently came from Denison, Texas.

I would appreciate any leads anyone can give me so I can return these picture albums, family Bible and other things. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Ms. Alice Shelby

20 De Mayo De 1902 '!Creo Que Hemos Llegado!'

En este noventa aniversario de la Constitucion de la Republica de Cuba el dia 20 de mayo de 1902, las campanas siguen yertas. Como vamos a echarlas a volar tocando a jubilo. Como va a vestirse de fiesta el corazon cubano para celebrar tan fausto acontecimiento, si el Batey no esta pa fiesta, como dirian nuestros Mambises. Como vamos a vestirnos de gala: como podemos armar una gran algarabía, compartiendo, desde su morada celestial, con los inmortales forjadores de nuestra libertad. De que manera podemos evocar las palabras que, a nombre de todos ellos, pronunciara el Generalísimo Maximo Gomez, en el momento en que nuestro primer presidente Don Tomas Estrada Palma se hacia cargo del poder. Aquellas palabras que pronunciara mientras abrazaba emocionado al General Jose Miguel Gomez: "¡Creo que hemos llegado!"

Nuestra Patria es un cadáver inmenso rodeado de buitres por arriba y de hienas por abajo que se alimentan de la carroña que les cae de arriba. De los despojos de un pueblo encadenado por mas de treinta años. De la sangre, del hambre, de las llagas, de la angustia de ese pueblo. Y de la indiferencia de un mundo mil veces decidida, que se arrodilla ante el Sagrado, como es el caso de ese blasfemo Moranca español y sus afeines, que inclina su cabeza para recibir la hostia consagrada, y que tras media vuelta alza su cabeza y con ella la copa, para chocarla, ¡impío! con la de esa figura satanica, que ha limpiado el piso de las Iglesias, -de todas las denominaciones-, con las hostias consagradas y con los ornamentos misticos que simbolizan el sacrificio de la Cruz.

Pan y circo le ofrecieron los judios decidias a la plebe para hacerlos complices de la pasion y crucifixion de Jesucristo. Solo que aquellos "no sabian lo que hacian", segun sentencia del propio Redentor. Pan y circo ofrecio y le dio a la "crapula" el Verdugo de Cuba. Pero, que desgarradoramente triste constatar que los gobernantes de España, la cuna de la Religion, y nuestra madre putativa, ¡valiente madre!, se hayan alineado y revolcado con ese Azote Diabolico, enemigo del mundo cristiano y enemigo de Dios.

La misma gravedad de las circunstancias en que nos encontramos nos obliga a erguirnos. Tenemos un compromiso sagrado con nuestra Patria que nos necesita. Los cubanos de adentro estan siendo acorralados y se van obligados a realizar sacrificios cruentos. Fuera, el exilio cubano lucha con toda clase de armas. Unos con la palabra, otros con ideas. Muchos dispuestos a la lucha armada.

Cuba esta en ruinas. En este noventa aniversario de la Constitucion de la Republica, tenemos que rogar a Dios, con la intercesion de Nuestra patrona, la Virgen de la Caridad del Cobre, que nos ayude a levantarla. Piedra a piedra. Y no solamente reconstruirla en los fisicos. Tambien en lo espiritual y en lo moral. El deterioro mayor no es en lo externo sino en el interior de cada ser.

En su espíritu atribulado, en su descreimiento, en sus valores corrompidos, y sobre todo en el predomnio del odio que clama por venganza. Hay que acabar de barrer todas las falsas consignas, insuflarles un nuevo credo: el del amor, la libertad y la democracia. De manera que la bandera de la estrella solitaria tremole otra vez -orgullosamente en el viento, anunciando al mundo que ya Cuba es libre, independiente y soberana.

Pahokee woman invents children's "No mess" table

By Brenda Bunting
Editor

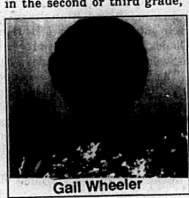

Gail Wheeler of Pahokee says she was jogging one day when she came up with an idea for a child-sized dinette table.

"Children are so messy when they eat. I was trying to come up with an idea that would help families with small children," she said.

She now has a patent on the "No Household Mess Child Dinette Set." She hopes to have the table in production in the near future.

Mrs. Wheeler, a teacher at Belle Glade Elementary, said the dinette set would allow young children to eat or play in privacy. It is sturdy enough for constant use and could be manufactured in various sizes.

"It's geared toward children from age two and up to children in the second or third grade,"

she said.

It could also be a great tool for handicapped children, according to Mrs. Wheeler, and could be adjusted for up to four children or older, handicapped youth.

The original idea is now being made available for licensing to manufacturers interested in new product development, according to the National Idea Center, the group who is acting as a publicity and licensing agent for Mrs. Wheeler.

National Idea Center says, "Young children are notoriously messy when they eat. Despite the vigilance of parents, some food invariably lands on the floor, the walls, various kitchen appliance and the child's clothing. Wheeler's invention would undoubtedly make dinnertime more enjoyable for kids."

Mrs. Wheeler said she came up with the idea about two years ago when she worked with two to five year olds in the Head Start Program.

Glades Day's tennis team gets check...Half of the proceeds from the Clewiston Sugar Festival Tennis Tournament were donated to Glades Day's Tennis Team. Organizer Lella Connell (right) presented a check to Tennis Teacher Rita Schoenfeld this week for $100. The other half of the profits were donated to Clewiston's Tennis Team. Mrs. Connell said 80 teams participated this year. "Next year, if there are more profits, Belle Glade will receive more, so come on you guys and sign up next year!" she said.

Libel suit settled between Earl Baldree, Jr. and Crimestoppers

Earl Baldree, Jr., a former resident of the Pahokee-Belle Glade area, and Crime Stoppers of Palm Beach County have agreed to settlement of a libel suit against Crime Stoppers.

The lawsuit stemmed from a Crime Stoppers news release which was published in the Belle Glade/Pahokee Sun on January 5, 1989. In the news release, Mr. Baldree was named as a "most wanted person" and the public was asked to call the Crime Stoppers tip line with leads concerning his whereabouts.

According to papers filed in connection with the lawsuit, information for the Crime Stoppers news release had been taken from an arrest warrant against Mr. Baldree which had been issued in error. Crime Stoppers relied on the validity of the warrant when it prepared its report for release to The Sun.

As soon as the item appeared in the newspaper, Mr. Baldree contacted Crime Stoppers and the arrest warrant was recalled.

Mr. Baldree said he was readily reachable at his job at all times but he was not contacted about the news release.

According to his attorney, Lawrence S. Allen, Mr. Baldree is pleased with the resolution of his claim against Crime Stoppers and believes the settlement vindicates him and has helped repair any damage done to his reputation.

Terms of the settlement have not been released by Mr. Baldree or Crime Stoppers.

WE OWE OUR FREEDOM TO THE LIVES THEY GAVE UP FOR US

All thinking people must abhor
The dreadful tragedy of war,
Which often we could not avoid;
And so our troops were then deployed.
It's so unthinkable, and yet
The debt of gratitude we owe
To those who fought our every foe,
And gave their lives so gallantly
To help preserve our liberty.
So let's remember them with pride;
We're free today because they died.
For this, let's thank the Lord and pray
That we will live to see the day
When all is safe upon our shore,
And freedom reigns forevermore.

GATOR TALES

Members of the Class of '92 are chomping at the bit as they wind down their 13 years of schooling this week with final exams, graduation rehearsals, baccalaureate services and, that moment they've been waiting for, commencement.

Glades Day will formally recognize the class valedictorian, salutatorian and outstanding academic achievers of the Class of '92 at the annual Senior Class Night this Friday, May 22 at 8 p.m. in the school's Dora B. McWhorter Hall. Baccalaureate services will be held at 5 p.m., Sunday, May 24, at the Community United Methodist Church in Belle Glade. Graduation ceremonies will take place at 8 p.m. next Thursday, May 28 at the Dolly Hand cultural Arts Center.

Glades Day's elementary students put on the "Giddy

Gator Revue: for parents and guests last Thursday, May 14 in the school's gymnasium. Coordinated by fifth grade teacher Debbie Lundy, students in grades K-3 through sixth provided entertainment including singers, dancers, piano players, gymnasts and a flutist. Zack Threlkeld, dressed as "Giddy Gator", hosted the variety show and was assisted by poster girls Deanna Deaton, Mallory McKee and Kaley Schlechter. The performance was a big success and we are anticipating bigger and better things next year!

Speaking of success, the Student Council's annual Field Day proved to be even bigger and better as grades 7-12 competed against each other in athletic events and entertainment. The lip sync competition was the closest ever as each class outdid themselves in performing to their favorite songs. The seventh grade's "My Best Friend's Back" won the junior high division (gr. 7-9) and the Class of '93's version of "Shout" emerged as the winner in grades 10-12.

The victors of the day, however, was the Class of '94, who took almost every event in winning the title. The eight graders, first in the junior high division, came in second in total points, while the juniors took third.

Our congratulations to sponsor Charla Sizemore and the Student Council for continually coming up with innovative ideas to make Field Day a success.

National Junior Honor Society members are busy this week and next sponsoring an eye screening program for students in first, third, fifth, seventh, and ninth grades. Coordinated by sponsor Sharon Baumgartner and Belle Glade Outmaster Don Fiehs, this annual program is designed to detect visual defects in students and notify parents of any possible problems. While the program has been a success over the years, Mrs. Baumgartner would like to caution parents if they do not take the place of a regular eye exam.

A REMINDER TO PARENTS: The volleyball teams will have a rummage sale Saturday morning, May 30 in the parking lot beside the bowling alley. If anyone has any items to donate, please send them to the high school office or contact Rita Schoenfeld, Karen Hansford or Tom King by Wednesday, May 27.

Monday, May 25 will be a school holiday in observance of Memorial Day. Enjoy the weekend!

Glades Day honors academic achievers

Juniors Alina Blanchard and Tom Carter were named recipients of the William H. Danforth "I DARE YOU" award at Glades Day School's assembly held Monday, May 11 to honor high achieving students in grades 7-11.

The Danforth award is a national program whose purpose is to highlight character and leadership qualities in youth, and to encourage all young people to lead creative lives of high purpose. National Honor Society sponsor Susie Orsenigo also recognized NHS members who participated in the American Lung Association's "Students Teaching Students" program, where students were trained to go out to area elementary schools and teach young children about the perils of smoking.

Citizenship awards were presented to a male and female student from each grade who exemplified the qualities of dependability, school spirit, cooperation, positive attitude and influence. Those recognized were Sheri Jimmerson and Brandon Walker, seventh grade; Denalda King and Henry Rionda, eighth grade; Lori Lamb and Jeff Goodale, ninth grade; Michelle Alvarez and Jeremy Lovell, tenth grade; and Cristina Alvarez and Tom Carter, eleventh grade.

Local students get scholarships from PBCC

In order to further encourage outstanding scholars of Palm Beach County high schools to remain in the community, Palm Beach Community College presented the President's Scholar awards program.

The 1992/93 President's Scholarships were awarded on Tuesday, May 12 at the Palm Beach Community College Central Campus Watson B. Duncan Theatre. The ceremony was held at 7 p.m.

Scholarships were awarded to any student who graduates in the top 10 percent of his class with a 3.0 grade point average or higher. The scholarship includes up to 70 hours of classes toward their degree.

Students Sherry Dile and Elsa Espasza from Pahokee Middle/Senior High School received scholarships and Fitzroy Rhoden and Daniel St. Louis from Glades Central Community High School received these scholarships.

Youth Camp has openings

There are still a few openings for the 1992 summer camp session at the Everglades Youth Conservation Camp located in Palm Beach County, according to Camp Director Ernie Kern of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Commission (GFC).

Application forms for the Everglades Youth Conservation Camp may be obtained at the GFC's Everglades Regional Headquarters at 551 North Military Trail, West Palm Beach. Phone requests should be directed to (407) 640-6100.

Reservations are processed in Tallahassee on a first-come, first-served basis. Kern said most openings are for girls ages eight and ninth. There are also a few slots open in hunter education which teaches gun safety and hunter ethics.

Tuition is $100 which includes food, materials, and lodging for one week. Campers learn about ecology, swim, practice archery, canoe, hike and participate in a wide range of outdoor activities.

The first of seven camp sessions begins June 21st. Kern strongly advises that parents enroll their children as soon as possible. If there aren't any openings, the camper will be added to a waiting list in case of cancellations.

The Everglades Youth Camp borders a pond in the scenic J.W. Corbett Wildlife Management Area. The camp may be reached by going north on the Seminole-Pratt-Whitney Road, and turning left at the south check station at Corbett.

The GFC also maintains the Ocala Youth Conservation Camp in the Ocala National Forest. A few openings remain for girls eight to ninth, and for hunter education. Further details may be obtained by calling (904)-732-1225.

Applications available now for the fifth annual alligator harvest

Australia this isn't. But Florida does offer its own kind of crocodilian adventure -- alligator hunting.

Applications to participate in Florida's fifth annual alligator harvest are available by now from regional offices of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. Regional offices are at Lakeland, Panama City, Lake City, West Palm Beach and Ocala.

"The Commission will mail an application to everyone who submitted an application for last year's hunt, regardless of whether he was picked for last year's hunt," said Nick Wiley, alligator program biologist.

"We ask that everyone who applied for last year's hunt not request an application unless his address has changed, or he has not received an application from the Commission by May 15."

Wiley said he hopes that sending applications to last year's applicants will reduce the volume of phone calls from potential applicants that swamps regional offices this time of year. The 1992 alligator harvest is scheduled to take place Sept. 1-30 on 32 harvest sites throughout the state. The exact number of permits to be issued will be determined in July, when the Commission will evaluate biological data to determine the number of alligators that can be taken from each site without harm to the alligator population.

"In 1991, we issued permits to 186 persons, who were permitted to take up to 15 alligators from a specific water body," Wiley said. "Some 15,000 people applied for the 188 slots."

Applications must be returned to the Commission's Wildlife Research Lab in Gainesville via a postal or express-delivery service by 5 p.m., June 15, to be included in a random drawing for permits.

Only persons 18 years and older may apply. Residents selected for the hunt will be required to purchase the $250 alligator trapping license and attend a six-hour alligator harvest training program.

"This year, licensed trappers will be permitted to have up to three agents to assist with the hunt, instead of just one," Wiley said. "We still require that the license holder be in the boat with the agents during every outing."

Trapper agents must pay $50 for a non-transferable license.

Wiley said the alligator harvest can be profitable, although markets for alligator meat and hides are somewhat depressed right now.

"The reason behind the hunt is to promote alligator and wetland conservation in Florida by giving people an opportunity to benefit directly from the economic value of alligators," Wiley said.

Pelicans released by "Pelican Lady"

The annual event known as "The Pelican Release" occurred on May 15 at 9:30 a.m. in Jupiter, from the property of Mrs. Joseph Klim, with the help of Mrs. Shirley Johnson, who is known as the "Pelican Lady," and has looked after newly released brown pelicans since 1979.

Brown pelicans, both captive and raised and rehabilitated, will be released to help replenish the brown pelican population which is being thwarted by loss of habitat, pollution, and being snagged by fishing lines and nets.

Some of Lion Country's brown pelicans are from "Pelican Island," a favorite of visitors to the world famous attraction near West Palm Beach. The island is home to a large group of adult brown pelicans that are permanently injured to the point they cannot be released but their offspring grow up healthy brown pelicans and are released.

"The Pelican Release" is another example of Lion Country Safari's role in the preservation and conservation of wildlife.

Gladeview holds mock trial of W. Coyote and Road Runner

By Bill Phillips
Staff reporter

Gladeview Elementary School held a mock trial Tuesday to give 5th grade students an idea of how a real trial takes place in a courtroom.

In the trial, the Coyote was suing the Road Runner for willfully attempting to hurt him. Students played the parts of the Road Runner, W. Coyote, and Bugs Bunny as a witness with real lawyers acting as public defender and district attorneys. The jury was made up of students.

Attorney Jill Vestey was the attorney for the Road Runner and Attorney Mark Hanson was the attorney for W. Coyote.

It only took the jury 2 minutes to render a verdict of not guilty for the Road Runner after hearing testimony from Bugs Bunny.

Judge Daff E. Duck presided over the mock hearing.

The organizer for the event was Kelli Fasenmyer, a fifth grade teacher at Gladeview Elementary.

Death Valley Courthouse.....No it's Gladeview Elementary School's Cafeteria Tuesday when the fifth graders turned the cafeteria into a courtroom with a mock trial.

The jury deliberates.....It only took the jury, made up of Gladeview Elementary fifth graders, two minutes to find for the Road Runner in Tuesday's Mock Trial held at the school.

WPTV Channel 5 to honor graduates in Palm Beach County

For the eighth year, WPTV-TV-5 will honor the area's top high school seniors through a series of public service announcements titled, "The Best of the Class of 1992." The PSA's will air during the graduation and early summer season.

WPTV hosted a day long coastal cruise aboard Palm Beach Cruise Line's Viking Princess on Wednesday, May 20, for valedictorians from both public and private high schools in Indian River, Martin, St. Lucie, Okeechobee, and Palm Beach counties. The students were videotaped wearing their caps and gowns with Action 5 News personalities Tom Dunn, Rachele Scholes and Tom Wilson. Each student received a certificate and the 1992 edition of the Scripps Howard World Almanac.

"Best of the Class" is our message to all students that choosing to remain in school and working hard is a most admirable achievement. Honoring these worthy young graduates is a great pleasure, says WPTV's Vice President and General Manager, William J. Brooks.

In addition to WPTV, Scripps Howard Broadcasting owns and operates television stations in Baltimore, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Kansas City, Memphis, Phoenix, Tulsa, and Detroit. It also operates radio stations in Baltimore, Memphis, Portland, Oregon and cable television systems in California, Colorado, and Florida, with 267,400 basic subscribers.

WHITE TEETH ANYONE?

Have you ever had your teeth cleaned really well and, yet, they still just don't have that brighter, whiter look you desire? Well you may be a candidate for vital BLEACHING. BLEACHING IS HERE FOR VITAL

TEETH. The pre-treatment condition of your teeth can certainly help predict your result. Here are some points: no anesthesia is needed; no sitting in the dentist office for repeated visits; you gradually whiten your teeth as you sleep; this process is most effective for yellow, orange or slightly brown discoloration; it treats all your teeth, not just the front ones.

Call us for a consultation to have us help you determine the possibilities of whitening your SMILE.
